YOUTH DIRECTOR JOB DESCRIPTION

Position:

- The Youth Director's primary responsibility will be to develop and manage a Christ-centered youth ministry program in coordination with the Senior Pastor. The Youth Director will be responsible to the direction of both the Church Council and Senior Pastor. The program will include several separate groups for grades 6 through 12 and communication with post high school members to be determined by Youth Director and Senior Pastor.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Direct and guide each group within the youth ministry program.
- Plan, oversee, and attend monthly meetings for each group, which will include worship, fellowship, discipleship, mission, and fun activities.
- Attend weekly church services at Salem Church, and report to Senior Pastor when this will not be possible.
- Coordinate and participate in mission trips for youth to create a spirit of serving.
- Outreach to other youth in the community.
- Meet individually with youth when necessary in an appropriate setting to counsel and lead them in the Christian direction. Senior Pastor will be advised of this meeting prior to the event and consulted after the meeting.

Qualifications:

- This Youth Director position is intended to be a part-time position of 20 hours per week, which will include weekends. Worship attendance is not included in the 20 hours per week.
- The best candidate will be a spiritual role model who will encourage and support our youth in their own faith journeys.
- Background in education and previous guidance and leadership roles preferred.
- Compensation will be determined by qualifications.
- Background check will be required.
